Handwritten mark or signature, possibly a date or a reference number, located on the left margin of the document.

Handwritten mark or signature, possibly a date or a reference number, located on the right margin of the document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. It appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a record, with some lines starting with capital letters. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive. There are some faint markings and a small dark spot on the right side of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page. There are several large, dark circular marks or holes visible on the paper, possibly from binding or damage. The text appears to be in a historical language, possibly Persian or Arabic, given the style of the script and the use of some specific characters like 'Allah' (الله) and 'Muhammad' (محمد).

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. It consists of several lines of dense, flowing script, with some larger, more prominent characters or words interspersed. The handwriting is characteristic of a specific historical period, possibly the 16th or 17th century, based on the style of the letters and the use of certain symbols. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or a list of items, but the specific content is difficult to decipher due to the cursive nature of the script. There are some larger, more stylized characters that might represent specific words or names, such as "O" or "A" at the beginning of some lines. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged piece of historical writing.
